Resolute Bank Announces New and Improved Website

Maumee, Ohio – Kevin T. Rahe, President of Resolute Bank – a full-service community bank specializing in relationship banking for small to mid-sized businesses –announced today that in January 2016 the bank launched a new and improved website:

www.resolutefsb.com

“At Resolute Bank, our first priority is to provide each customer with an exceptional banking experience,” said Rahe. “The new website goes a long way in helping us deliver our commitment.”

Developed with clients in mind, the new site features streamlined menus and direct navigation ensuring direct access to needed information, quickly and conveniently. In addition to improved navigation, the new site will include updated content and more detailed information on the bank’s products and services. The site will also have client access to online banking, bill payment services, remote deposit and credit card accounts.
