Resolute Bank Announces smsGuardian Text Message Alert Service

Maumee, Ohio – Kevin T. Rahe, President of Resolute Bank – a full-service community bank specializing in relationship banking for small to mid-sized businesses –announced today that the bank launched smsGuardian, a text message alert service for its debit card clients.

“We are offering this product because we care about the security and safety of our clients and their account information,” said Rahe. “I am also happy to continue our commitment to deliver quality products that meet the changing needs of our clients and the community.”

smsGuardian allows subscribed users to receive alerts via sms text messaging when suspicious card activity occurs on their enrolled Resolute Bank business or personal debit card.

Cardholders will receive alerts for the following types of transactions: any international transaction; 5 or more transactions in a 24 hour period; any out of state transaction; any transaction over $300; any card not present transaction or any declined authorization. There is no charge¹ for smsGuardian and enrollment can be performed by accessing www.resolutefsb.com.

¹Message and Data Rates May Apply. Clients may discontinue the receipt of Alerts immediately by texting the word STOP in reply to a Guardian Alert. Clients may unsubscribe from this service entirely on the Website. Cardholders can also discontinue alerts by texting the word STOP to 27576.
