Resolute Bank Announces

New Vice President & Product Manager

Maumee, Ohio – Kevin T. Rahe, President of Resolute Bank – a full-service community bank specializing in relationship banking for small to mid-sized businesses –announced today that on Monday, October 13, 2015 the bank welcomed Christine Hosinski, CTP as Vice President and Product Manager to its growing staff. The bank created this position to address its need to expand and refine its product offerings for both its business and personal clients.

“Resolute Bank is excited to have Christine join our team,” said Rahe. “Her experience and understanding of small business banking will allow the bank to tailor products to meet the ever changing needs of our clients. Christine will be an integral part of listening to our clients in an effort to create an extraordinary client experience.”

Hosinski has over 20 years of regional banking experience in the areas of retail branch management, private banking and treasury management. Her work history includes employment at Fifth Third Bank, Huntington Bank and most recently FirstMerit Bank where she was Vice President and Treasury Management Sales Officer for the Northwest Ohio Region. She holds her Certified Treasury Professional certification and has a B.S.B.A. from the University of Toledo. Christine lives in Sylvania, OH and is active in numerous community groups.

“I am looking forward to being part of the next chapter of Resolute Bank and having a hand in tailoring solutions which will help our clients,” Hosinski noted. “I am joining a terrific team of people and we are all looking forward to helping Resolute Bank grow and better serve current and future clients.”
