

Bank of Maumee Announces Name Change to Resolute Bank

Maumee, Ohio – The Bank of Maumee – a full-service community bank specializing in relationship banking for small to mid-sized businesses – today announced that, effective Monday, June 29, 2015, the bank has changed its name to “Resolute Bank.” The new name is part of an overall rebranding effort and “better reflects who we are and what we do today as a full-service community bank,” explained bank president Kevin Rahe.

“The name change and rebranding effort is an important milestone in the history of our company,” said Rahe. “When considering the bank’s past and its future, ‘resolute’ encompasses all that we stand for and brings important bank qualities – such as steadfast, purposeful, and determined – to the forefront.”

From a day-to-day standpoint, Resolute Bank will continue to specialize in relationship-based banking, focused on small to mid-sized businesses and residents of Northwest Ohio. At the same time, the bank is growing and changing in order to better serve current and future clients. The bank has already expanded the Small Business Administration (SBA) lending program and now offers two new products: certain residential mortgage and reverse mortgage lending programs to areas across the country.

Additionally, Resolute has added to its roster of seasoned banking professionals – many of whom left some of the largest commercial banks to join the company. Within the past year, the bank has more than doubled its employee base in order to enhance services to valued customers. “Our solid team ensures our customers have quick, local access to decision-makers who can help them address all of their banking needs,” said Rahe.

“Our Board of Directors and executive management team understand the increased value of name recognition and awareness of our brand as we grow into new markets and regions of the country. A broader name that represents what the bank stands for will help us accomplish our goals, both with our presence on the web and in more traditional ways,” Rahe concluded.

Additional information regarding the bank’s name change is available on the bank’s website at www.resolutefsb.com. Customers are encouraged to contact the bank with any questions.
