Resolute Bank Announces Client Experience Officer

MAUMEE, Ohio – Kevin T. Rahe, President of Resolute Bank—a full-service community bank specializing in relationship banking for small and mid-sized business—announced today the bank welcomed Jeff Langenderfer as our Client Experience Officer to its growing staff. The bank created this position to focus on expanding the overall experience a client encounters while providing a consultative approach in meeting client needs.

“Resolute Bank is excited to have Jeff on our team,” said Rahe. “His experience and understating of clients’ needs and small business banking will allow the bank to grow in consumer loans and deposits. Jeff will be an integral part of our team in an effort to create extraordinary client experiences.”

Langenderfer joins Resolute Bank with nearly 30 years of experience in the banking industry, specifically in retail management. Langenderfer dedicates his career to the needs of his customers and is eager to work at Resolute Bank where he is able to fully serve his clients. His work history includes employment at major banking giants such as SVP at National City (PNC), SVP at Huntington National Bank, and VP at Fifth Third Bank. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Toledo. Langenderfer currently resides in Sylvania and is active in numerous professional and community organizations.

“I am excited to take my nearly 30 years of banking experience to help Resolute Bank grow and create an experience that will be talked about around town.”
